ORDER

Issued: April 6, 2016

Released: April 6, 2016

The Presiding Judge concludes that it is appropriate at this time that the parties consult and submit a current Status Report.

The last Status Report was submitted on December 2, 2015, in response to Order FCC 15M-30, rel. Nov. 23, 2015. The parties then reported, inter alia, that the Enforcement Bureau's expert psychologist, Dr. Kimberly Weitzl, expected to interview Mr. Michael S. Rice at 1:00 PM CST on December 2, 2015, at Dr. Weitzl's office. Dr. Weitzl further estimated that she would need until the end of February, 2016, to complete the expert report, and the parties stated that they anticipated that Dr. Weitzl's deposition would be scheduled sometime between mid-February and mid-March 2016.

Having received no updates from the parties since that time, the Presiding Judge requires a current Status Report, including: (1) confirmation that Dr. Weitzl's interview of Mr. Rice took place on December 2 as expected, or if not, the current status of the interview; (2) the status of Dr. Weitzl's expert report and, if not complete, the expected time for completion; and (3) the status of Lake Broadcasting's deposition of Dr. Weitzl, including the date or expected date of the deposition.

In addition, the Presiding Judge requires information regarding the state of discovery and the expected date(s) of completing discovery, as well as estimated dates for commencing and concluding the hearing.

The Status Report shall be filed, exchanged, and submitted by April 20, 2016.

SO ORDERED.
